Nationals Face Detroit in First Game of Series-McAleer Out Scouting--McBride in Charge.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Detroit, Mich., July 6.-Without Manager McAleer, who left the club at Rochester and is presumably on a scouting trip, the Washington baseball club trooped in at the Cadillac at 9 o'clock this evening, and the players, wearled by the long ride, lost no time in making their way to Stationary beds. To-morrow they are due to begin the second series of the year which they have played on the Tigers'

Acting Manager McBride was congratulated on the recent brace of his team. He maintained that the combination was not working nearly as well as it should,

"Watch us in this series," said he

as manager. Thi

'We'd have a fine time getting waive on a .300 hitter who can play any place in the infield," he commented:

As a foatter of fact, it is doubtful the Detroit club would waive on Scha-fer, unless he should urgently desire. There are many local bugs who has wished during the past month the Schmefer had been on hand to go in second base, where the chasm is n yet filled

It seems probable, according to Mo Bride's guarded admission, that Dolly Bride's guarded admission, that Dolly Gray will make the start against Detroit to morrow. Lafitte will probably oppose him. To-day's victory of the Cleveland Club over the Athletics gives the Tigers a clean lead of one game, but local bugs are wondering if the Naps can stand the clip, fearing that the Athletics will win more of the remaining games of the series than Detroit will from Washington.

Notice, Lamines nor McBride is COM-

Neither Jennings nor McBride is con-sidering a change in the regular batting order. Jennings is under suspension and will be off the coaching lines until Mon-

Reds next year. 'According to the story, Clark Griffith, at present manager of the Cincinnati Reds, confided to a Chicago figend that be would be away from Cin-cinnati next year and would own a part or a team in either the American Association or the Eastern League.

The Chicago players mentioned in con-nection with the deal were John Evers, Joe Tinker, James Sheckard, and Artie Hofman. John King, formerly with the Cubs. also was named. John Ganzel, now the Eastern League, and George Stallgs, also an Eastern Leaguer, are men-med as possible successors to Griffith.
